NSI Celebrates Women's Savings Day Throughout The Country

The MPKBY agents play an important role in mobilization of household savings in the country by providing services at the doorsteps of the investor for collecting the money and depositing the same subsequently in the Post Office. The objective of organizing the Women's Savings Day was to create awareness among the masses about the role of women in the savings process. To highlight the importance of Women's Savings Day and motivate MPKBY agents to mobilize more saving in urban and rural areas, NSI celebrates every year Women's Savings Day on 15th April. This year also the Women's Savings Day (MPKBY) was celebrated throughout the country at the Head Quarters of Regional Centres on 15th April 2006.

The distinguished guests on the occasion appreciated the role played by women especially MPKBY agents who strive hard for securing maximum collections in small savings as the entire collections mobilized in the state is utilized by the State Govt. for their developmental activities. The celebration was well covered by Doordarshan, AIR & Print Media. A special Ad highlighting the importance of the day was published on 15th April in the various newspapers through DAVP, New Delhi.
